WRUW FM 91.1

WRUW.ORG

Greetings WRUW Listeners! Welcome to another fall semester! Our student programmers have returned to their places on the airwaves, and we look forward to bringing you the best of jazz, polka, reggae, indie rock and pop, funk, Italian, metal, Irish, R&B, electronic, experimental, talk, public affairs, punk, garage, hip-hop, alternative country, folk, bluegrass, world music, blues, classic rock, 80s, dance, house, and more...whew!

A few new programs you'll want to pay attention to: Phil B., formerly of Strange Formula, continues to bring you electronic, experimental, and indie rock on his new show Vitamin C (Mondays 12-2 AM), Dustbowl Blizzards' Kyle plays funk on Get the Funk Out Ma Face (Mondays 6-7 PM), while an abridged group of the Emergency Donuts continue as Glazed and Confused (Wednesdays 2-4 PM). Nathan, formerly of Teen Plague, is back with Mutant Monday, playing punk and hardcore (Tuesdays 12:30-2 AM). Brand new programmers Alexandra and Hayden give us their take on freeform, called Freak Unique (Friday 2-4 AM), and Y'all Diva's Miriam is flying solo on Iris 1 & Iris 2 (Friday 1-2 AM).

Are you part of a non-profit organization or head of a non-profit event?

WRUW can help get the word out for your cause through a public service announcement! For consideration, please send a brief description of your organization or event to our Public Service Director at psa@wruw.org. You could hear your event announced on air!

Own a for-profit business or organization?

Tell WRUW's listeners you're a fan too with an underwriting announcement for your business! Underwriting spreads the word about your business in a non-commercial fashion. In exchange for a donation, we can help you put together an underwriting announcement to be played on air. You specify the announcement length and airing frequency, and we'll handle the rest. Show-specific underwriting opportunities available! For more info: underwrite@wruw.org

Studio-A-Rama 2013

We hope you loved our 32nd annual Studio-A-Rama music festival as much as we did!

Merge Records rocker Mikal Cronin gave a hair-flipping finale, and we were delighted to welcome Mirrors back from the rock 'n roll crypt after their last Studio-A-Rama performance.

A special thanks to our local openers: The Wingtones, Tuk II, Sh*tbox Jimmy, Smooth Brain, Ma Holos, Blaka Watra, Home & Garden, Goldmines, and Ohnox for great performances!

We hope you'll join us again next year! Thanks for all of your support!
